

Learning Environment Design Processes

Envisioning

Imagining the purpose, context, and components.

Finding

Locating a range of resources and activities that are on topic.

Curating

Using expert judgment to recommend the most relevant and useful components.

Assembling

Collating and packaging the resources and activities.

Cultivating

Ensuring the environment continues to be fresh, enticing and useful.